

Whangawehi Catchment Management Group

Logo Design

Name: Patricia
Taumata-
albert

About my idea

I have chosen this design because the Mangopare represent strength courage and life. it took strength and courage for the WCMG to realise they needed to take action and protect the aha. there will be greater life in the river if we protect it. I have chosen green and blue because green represents the land and nature life in it. The blue represents sea^{water} and the sea.

