Dear Nicholas

New Zealand Biosecurity Awards

Biosecurity is my number one priority as Minister for Primary Industries and crucial in protecting our economy and way of life. These awards recognise that it is a shared responsibility for all New Zealanders, and celebrate the efforts of people like you who are doing their bit for biosecurity every day. It's great to have you as part of our biosecurity team of 4.7 million.

All of the entries were of an impressive standard and choosing the winners was a challenging task for our judging panel.

In recognition of the entry for your project, and to show our appreciation of your contribution to New Zealand's biosecurity I am delighted to provide you with the enclosed certificate. I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you as a participant of these inaugural awards. I wish you the best of luck with your work and hope to see it again as part of the 2018 awards.

Yours sincerely
